A detailed historical map of the White Plains area in New York. The map shows the city of White Plains, including the Sing Sing Prison and the White Plains Race Course. Surrounding areas include Purchase, Port Chester, and the Hudson River. The map features a compass rose in the top left corner, a scale bar in the top right corner, and various geographical features like parks, lakes, and harbors. The map is color-coded with different shades of green, yellow, and pink to represent different land uses or ownership. The title 'WHITE PLAINS' is prominently displayed in the center. The map also shows the Hudson River and the New York State Thruway. The map is a historical document, likely from the early 20th century, given the presence of the Sing Sing Prison and the White Plains Race Course. The map is a detailed representation of the area, showing the layout of the city and its surroundings. The map is a valuable historical resource for understanding the development of the White Plains area. A close-up photograph of a street sign. The sign is white with black lettering. The word 'HUGUENOT' is written in large, bold, sans-serif capital letters. Below it, the letters 'EV' are visible, likely part of 'EVENING'. The sign is mounted on a wall, and the background shows a building facade with windows and a red fire escape.
